

Meet the Treadwell Family

We are the Treadwell family. Our family consists of my husband Melvin, our four beautiful children Jaheem (12) Jahshua (6) Jah'Niya (5) and Jahn (2) and me, Najma. I relocated to Michigan from Cleveland, Ohio in 2001 and I attended EMU and WCC to obtain a degree in Nursing. Melvin is from Buchanan, Michigan. We met while working together at Meijer in 2003. We married in 2008. We currently live in the Lincoln Consolidated School District. Melvin is a longtime dedicated employee of Ford Motor Company in Flat Rock. He will be pursuing courses in skill trade in the near future. I am a homemaker. Currently I homeschool our younger children in preparation for grade school. Jah'Niya will be attending the Spanish Immersion Program at Bishop this coming fall. The boys attend Keystone Academy.

In our free time you can find us at the YMCA in Ann Arbor, where we are active members. Gymnastics, basketball and tae kwon do are a few of the courses we take. As you can tell we enjoy anything to do with sports and fitness. Melvin has plans of becoming a personal trainer and helping people obtain their fitness and nutritional goals. Owning our own home has been a long time dream of ours. We've longed to build our own home. We've always talked about teaching our children how to plant and grow their own vegetables. I wasn't sure how we would obtain this dream because we are on one income. Having Habitat assist us in making this dream come true is a blessing. I can't wait to see our children playing in their own yard!

The Treadwell's new home will be 654 N. Ivanhoe, Ypsilanti, MI

One of my favorite quotes is, "Don't wish for it, work for it." (Najma)
 "We are grateful for the opportunity to partner with Habitat for Humanity. I am looking forward to working alongside other partner families, volunteers and staff. We are excited about the many things we will learn during this process that will help us with home ownership." (Melvin)
 "I'm happy for our family. No more drama of going to the leasing office. It's going to be great to have my own room." (Jaheem)
 "I'm happy that we are going to get a new house and we will have a basement." (Jahshua)
 "I want to share a room with mommy at our new house." (Jah'Niya)
