my story

My name is Shawna Swoffer. I have had many struggles since a young age. I have been working towards a better future and easier life for myself. I desire to reach a point that my life struggles will be a thing of the past. This past year I have been able to find myself and beat the odds.

I currently work full-time at EBY Brown. I also work part-time at Michael's. Music is a big part of my life. It's truly something I can't live without. I enjoy DIY projects, and arts and crafts. I guess you can say I have a million Pinterest pins. I love trying new things and learning. This past year I have gotten into mechanic work and really enjoy it.

After receiving my new home, I'm planning to enroll in college for a degree in Psychology. It is something I've always been passionate about. This home will be my first house and the first time I have lived by myself. I have always wanted a house. Just being able to say I did this on my own is a big deal to me.

This past year has put me in a place to develop personal growth, and further gain control and independence. I realized in my self-reflection, what I was missing. This will be my fresh start, my new beginning.

I always believed Habitat for Humanity was for families or married couples. I took a chance by contacting them. I was surprised to learn they help everyone including single individuals. I am looking forward to settling down and being able to lay my roots down. Most of all I am excited to grow within a home, a place called home, a place I call my own.

"You control your future, your destiny. What you think about comes about. By recording your dreams and goals on paper, you set in motion the process of becoming the person you most want to be. Put your future in good hands - your own."

- Mark Victor Hansen
