

Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley works to enrich Washtenaw County through a legacy of affordable homeownership for low-income families.

2021 HABITAT WOMEN BUILD MEDIA ALERT

DATE: Friday, March 26
TIME: 10 AM - Noon
LOCATION: The future home of Eden Simby, 641 Greenlawn St., Ypsilanti

DETAILS: Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley will kick off volunteer efforts at the 2021 Women Build home with a group of local Women Build Committee and supporter volunteers. The volunteers will be renovating the 2021 Women Build house, the future Habitat home of Eden and her son.

During the months of April, May and June, 100 women making up 15 teams will work collectively toward raising $65,000 in support of the renovation project costs. The women-led teams will work together to completely renovate the 1,232-square-foot home to be energy efficient.

Women Build is an initiative of Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley for local women to take a proactive step in serving the women of our community. Women Build is supported by local partners, including the James A. & Faith Knight Foundation and the PNC Foundation, as well as many local businesses, organizations and women.

Habitat invites the public to join for build days on Saturday, April 3, 9 AM – 4 PM or Friday, May 21, 9 AM – 4 PM, or help us with home improvement exterior projects for women in our community on Friday, May 7, 9 AM – 1 PM. No construction experience is necessary and COVID-19 Health & Safety Guidelines will be in place. Individuals who are interested in participating are encouraged to fundraise or donate $85 to help cover the cost of materials for the day. Attendees: Leah Borst, Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley Corporate & Faith Relations Representatives from the partners of the Women Build teams

About Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley

Established in 1989, Habitat for Humanity of Huron Valley enriches our neighbors to build better neighborhoods through our volunteer, donation, partnership and ReStore efforts. We build homes, communities and hope... under one roof. We work to enrich Washtenaw County through a legacy of affordable homeownership for families and individuals of low income. Each year, Habitat serves or assists more than 1,000 families and individuals through its Home Ownership Program, Home Improvement Program, Veterans Program, Aging in Place, Financial Education and Community Development Program. Habitat has built or renovated more than 250 homes and served or assisted more than 5,000 households in Washtenaw County. For more information, visit www.h4h.org.
